

THE HASAG CAMP

A memorial plaque erected in memory of the Jews who suffered and died, while performing forced labour at the German HASAG-Pelcery munitions factory.

The plaque was erected in 2009 at the initiative of Mr. Zygmunt Rolat and is located at, [what was], the entrance to the forced-labour camp at ul. Filamtów 28.

FELICJA KARAY

THE HASAG-APPARATEBAU CAMP
IN CZĘSTOCHOWA

Published by the Association of Częstochowa and District Jews in Israel
Tel Aviv, 2006 (5766)

Language editing: Yosef Rav Book design: Naama Yaffe

© All rights reserved to the Association of Częstochowa and District Jews in Israel

No part of this book may be copied, reproduced, translated, stored in an information database, or transmitted in any form or by any electronic, optical, or other means - nor any part thereof - without the written permission of the Association of Częstochowa and District Jews in Israel.

Any use of material of any kind contained in this book, in whole or in part, is prohibited without the written consent of the Association of Częstochowa and District Jews in Israel.

This book is dedicated to all the prisoners and survivors of the HASAG-Apparatebau ammunition factory "Pelsery" - to the holy victims, to those who were saved and remained alive, and to those who survived and did not forget the those who were murdered.