

AJZNER vel ŻELAZKO Mosze (1863–?), gabai. He was the son of Marek Mordechaj ha-Cohen and Sura née Sztokman. He was born in Piła, in the community of Panki. His brothers were Pinkus (1859–1937) and Majer (1862–?).

He served as long-term gabai and treasurer of the Ohel Jakow synagogue at Aleja 4. When, in 1926, the Gemilas Chesed interest-free loan fund was established at the synagogue, money was set aside for Ajzner to manage it.

His wife was Małka née Miętkiewicz, formerly Markowicz, the daughter of Jakub and Gitla née Imich (1st December 1856 Częstochowa –?). They had a son Szaja, (11th December 1889 Częstochowa –?).
