

Itta Lenczner

Itta Lenczner

The daughter of Fajwel and Chana Herszlikowicz. She was born in Częstochowa in 1885. She came to America in 1906 [and] he married Szaja Lenczner.

She belonged to the following organisations: New Lots Ladies Aid Society (former President); New Lots-Pennsylvania [Avenues] Talmud Torah (former Trustee); Ezras Yisoimim [Orphans Relief] in Brownsville (former Vice-President); Beth-El Hospital Auxiliary (former Chairperson); Jefferson Moishav Zkeinim [Nursing Home] (Member); East New York "We" [?] (Member); American Jewish Women Volunteers (Member); Zaloshiner Chevra Anshei Bnei Achim Ladies Auxiliary [Działoszyn Society of People Sons of Brothers] (one of the founders, former President, and current^{*1} Chairperson); Hadassah in East New York (Member); Częstochower Ladies Auxiliary (Chairlady); [United] Czenstochover Relief Committee (Vice-President) [and] Czenstochover Yidn Book Committee (Executive Member).

Her children are Mojsze Lenczner and Pearl Lenczner, who is married to Maury Schatz, a lawyer.

^{*1} [TN: This article is reprinted verbatim from Czenstochover Yidn, p. LII, which was written in 1947, when she was still alive.]