

Berl (Ben) Woznica

Berl (Ben) Woznica, the son of Bejnisz and Sura-Blima, [was] born in 1915 in Częstochowa. The family consisted of eight [sic ten]- the parents and five [sic eight] children – three sons and five daughters. Three were saved - Berl, Mendel, and Helen. The others perished at the hands of the Nazi murderers in the Treblinka gas chambers.

When the Germans attacked Poland, Berl was serving in the Polish Army. After experiencing much suffering and pain, he survived the War. In 1949, he came to the United States, where he lives with his wife and son. Berl is active in the club for newcomers to Boyle Heights, Los Angeles. He is also in contact with the landsleit of his hometown Częstochowa.