Addendum

•

Heilborn

Berkowitz, Abraham

He is a grandson of Alter the Box-Maker. Lajzer Berkowicz, one of the active workers in the Jewish Literary Society, was his father.

He emigrated from Częstochowa to South Africa and, during the Second World War, as a corporal in the South African army, he went through the Land of Israel to Libya (an Italian colony at the time). In the Land of Israel, he met with Częstochower friends and gave them regards from landsleit in South Africa, who meet frequently.

As a Częstochower in the South African army marching on Libya, he was a living symbol of our Jewish Częstochowa, which will continue to be alive in all parts of the world, wherever her children only find themselves.
