

GEISLER Ludwik (1883-1942 entrepreneur. He was born on 28th December 1883 in Częstochowa, the son of Józef and Maria née Prejs.

Geisler was a co-owner (together with Hipolit Wdowiński, → Markus Lewkowicz and → Dawid Borzykowski) of the Olsztyn Mining and Industrial Plant (formerly Quarries and Limestone Works) in Przymiłowice near Częstochowa.

He perished during the German occupation, presumably during the liquidation of the Częstochowa ghetto (September-October 1942).

His wife was Sura Rywka née Frymorgen, the daughter of Pinkus and Mindla née Grynwald, born on 10th April 1890 in Pogoń. They had two daughters - Natalia, married name Zylbersztajn (born on 11th May 1904 Częstochowa) and Paulina (born 14th August 1908 Częstochowa), who survived the German occupation. From 1946, until it was nationalised by the government in 1951, they were co-owners of the Olsztyn Mining and Industrial Plant.
