

GLIKSMAN Miriam Maria (1885-1942), communal and charity activist. She was born on 17th April 1885 in Kłobuck, the daughter of Natan Jakub Klajner and Fajga née Grylak.

Gliksman participated in the city's communal life, being vice-president and a board member of the "Ezra" Jewish Women's Circle (Aid), as well as a member of the "Dobroczytność" Charitable Society for Jews. In addition, she was very active in helping the poor and those in need. Her home in Częstochowa was a place where the poor found help and support. Each year, she organised a clothing campaign to help those naked and barefoot.

She perished in 1942 in Treblinka.

She was the wife of → Abraham Gliksman, with whom she had five children.

Czenstochower Yidn, p. XVIII.

Wiesław Paszkowski