

GOTTLIEB née ROTSZYLD Henryka (1882 - circa 1943), doctor. She was born on 24th May 1882 in Częstochowa, the daughter of merchant → Jakub Szmul Rotszyld and Basia née Weinberg. Her sister was Stefania (1880-), who married → Henryk Oderfeld.

She graduated from gimnazjum in Częstochowa and matriculated in 1908 (as an external student) in the Private Girls' Gimnazjum in Krakow. In the 1905/1906 academic year, she studied in the Philosophy Faculty of the Jagiellonian University and, in 1908-1913, in that same university's Faculty of Medicine. She completed her studies on 22nd September 1914 and received her degree in medical science on 27th February 1915.

She then worked at the St. Lazarus Hospital in Kraków and, from 1915, in the Emperor Franz Joseph Hospital in Vienna. After returning to Kraków, she conducted a private obstetrics and women's health practice. (In 1939, she lived at ul. Piłsudskiego 30). She belonged to the Kraków Medical Association.

She perished during the German occupation. (The circumstances of her death are unknown). She was awarded the Order of the Red Cross for her work in a clinical hospital in Vienna (1915).

Her husband was Dr Seweryn Samuel Gottlieb (1880-), a Kraków lawyer.

Corpus studiosorum E-J, p. 474 (her maiden name is here: Rotszyld). – Suchmiel, Kariery zawodowe lekarek, pp. 73, 74, 75, 79, 82, 99, 102, 104, 105, 107, 111, 135. – Spis abonentów sieci telefonicznych 1939, p. 93; Urzędowy spis lekarzy 1939, p. 67 (doctors). – APCz, Unit No. 58 (synagogue supervision record) 1882, birth record No. 59.

Andrzej Kuśnierczyk