

KON (KOHN) Hieronim (1905?-1943), lawyer. He was the son of Jakub Jan (1866-1940), lithographer and Regina née Helman (1873-1925).

He held a doctorate in law. From at least 1932, he practised as a lawyer in Częstochowa, with offices at ul. Kościuszki 7 and, from 1934, at ul. Kościuszki 28.

In 1943, he was murdered by the Germans in an extermination camp. A symbolic inscription, dedicated to him, appears on the family grave in the Częstochowa Jewish Cemetery (Grave No. 1117 II).

He never established a family.
