

A Letter from Poland

To Aba and Josef Kaufman

Dzierżoniów, 27th July 1950

Dear Uncle Abe,

You ask how life is in Poland.

To this I may reply to you that, we Jews in Poland, have still, never in our lives, lived as freely as we live now in Poland.

Morally, we feel very well. The road for us is overall free in any work, and all the schools are open to us.

Your nephew,

Abram Lewartowski
