

LIPIŃSKI Zygmunt (1915-1943), doctor. He was born on 17th May 1915 in Wieluń, the son of doctor → Julian Idel Lipiński and Estera née Haftka.

He probably attended the Jewish Gimnazjum, where his parents had been active since its beginning. His brother Józef, who was two years younger, is mentioned in the 1934 list of graduates (probably a mistake). In 1939 (?), he completed his medical studies and returned to his Częstochowa home-town.

In the ghetto, he lived at ul. Garibaldiego 28, from where he probably practised. During the deportations to the extermination camp, in September and October 1942, he stayed with his family, quarantined at ul. Garibaldiego 18. In the “Small Ghetto”, he lived at ul. Mostowa 9. Together with his wife and small child, and his parents, he perished on 20th March 1943 in the execution of the Jewish intelligentsia at the Częstochowa Jewish cemetery. They rest in the mass grave No. 28–31 III.

On 27th November 1941, he married Dobra Gąsiorowicz (22nd April 1915), the daughter of Icyk Jakub and Chana née Świdorska. They had a daughter, Janinka.
