

MOKRAUER Salomon (1896-1942), doctor, Zionist activist. He was born on 2nd August 1896 in Częstochowa, the son of → Mojżesz and Chana née Altman.

He graduated from the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Warsaw, receiving his medical degree on 12th October 1923. He specialised in surgery, ophthalmology and obstetrics. He worked as a doctor in Częstochowa, operating a private practice. Circa 1930, he moved to Włoszczowa, where he was a district doctor for the Health Insurance Fund (a branch of the District Health Insurance Fund in Częstochowa).

Like his father, he was a Zionist. In 1924 and 1927, he travelled to Palestine where his father lived. (In 1926, his wife, and their son Joachim, were living in Palestine.)

During the German occupation, until 1942, he was in Włoszczowa. Later, with the help of the Otręb family of Włoszczowa (?), he managed to get to Warsaw, where he lived in the local ghetto. On 13th December 1942, he refused to leave the ghetto and was shot.

His wife was Gołda née Wolf (19th December 1894 Częstochowa-), the daughter of Józef and Klara née Wajnberg. They had two sons, one of whom was Joachim Aleksander (6th April 1925-). Both sons survived the occupation.

Wyględowski, Chirurgia i chirurdzy, p. 204. – Rocznik lekarski 1933/34, col. 1049. – Materials (including his and his wife's passports, medical degree, 1935 registration) in the collections of Krzysztof Coner of Częstochowa; materials (extracts from civil registers) in the ODDC collections.

Krzysztof Coner