

Adam Wallace (Wrocławski)

Adam was born in Będzin to Majlech and Sura (née Pachter). In 1934, in Częstochowa, he married Felicja Szaja.

During the Nazi period, Adam Wallace's parents, three brothers and three sisters, as well as his wife's family - her father, a brother and a sister - all perished in sanctification of the Name [of God] and the People [of Israel]. The Wallace's only son was exterminated by the Nazi murderers at the age of seven.

The Wallaces - Adam and Felicja - were in the "Big Ghetto", the "Small Ghetto" and, later, were barracked in HASAG-Pelcery. They were liberated in Częstochowa on the night between 16th and 17th January 1945.

The Wallaces came to Montreal, Canada, in 1947, where Felicja Wallace gave birth to a wonderful little daughter - Suzy. Felicja Wallace died, in Montreal, on 13th August 1961.

Adam Wallace is active in the Czenstochover Landsmanshaft. He has held various offices in the Executive and participates in all the activities.

Suzy Wallace (Wrocławski)

Suzy was born in Montreal to Adam and Felicja (née Szaja) Wallace.

She graduated from the renowned Trafalgar High School and now works as secretary at the law office of a well-known Montreal solicitor.

She is distinguished for her intelligence and tact and is much loved in all social circles.
