

Berl Broder [sic Broda]

He was born to Jakub-Josef and Jentla née Szerer in Częstochowa, where before the War he lived at ul. Berka Joselewicza 6.

He was in the "Big Ghetto", then in the "Small Ghetto" and in the HASAG-Pelcery camp. He was liberated in Częstochowa on 16th January 1945.

He then travelled to Belgium, where he lived in Antwerp until 1951. He arrived in Canada in 1951 and takes an active interest in the Society's activities.

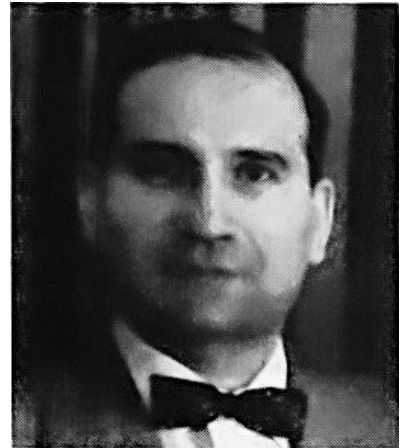

---

Lajbel Brower [sic Broda]

He was born to Jakub-Josef and Jentla née Szerer in Częstochowa, where, before the War, he lived at ul. Berka Joselewicza 6.

He was in the "Big Ghetto" and, during the period of the bloody events, was barracked in HASAG-Pelcery. His parents and two brothers, Abram and Dawid, perished in Treblinka.

He went through a nightmarish life in the "Small Ghetto" and, afterwards in HASAG. After liberation, he lived in Antwerp, Belgium. He has been a permanent Montreal resident since 1951 and takes part in the Society's activities.

---