Joint Meeting of the Book Committee

On 4th December 1962, a joint meeting was held with the Seniors of the Society making up the Honorary Book Committee and some members of the Book Committee.

The Chairman of the Book Committee, Harry Klein, opened the session and gave a general report of the Society's activities. Lajbke Jakubowicz, Treasurer of the Book Committee, reported on the finances for the book. Dr Benjamin Orenstein, the book's editor, spoke about the contents of the publication, stressing the fact that it would bear a general historical character and was to constitute an important contribution to the history of the life, struggle and destruction of Częstochowa Jewry.

All those present participated in the discussion. The Seniors, the members of the Honorary Book Committee, expressed their acknowledgement to the Society's Executive and to the Book Committee for their important and satisfactory activities. At this session, the Seniors gave their willing contributions to the Book Fund and encouraged the Book Committee to proceed with the work intensively.

At the meeting, Nathan Gelber proposed that a fund of a larger sum of money be created and that, from the fund's interest, a stable annual stipend be established for a student in one of the Israeli universities. This proposition was unanimously approved.
