

Icek Jabłonkiewicz (Yablon)

Icek was born to Berisz and Chawa (née Fiszhof) in Częstochowa, where he lived at Aleja 8.

He was in the "Big Ghetto", the "Small Ghetto and HASAG-Pelcery, from where he was deported to Germany and was in the Gross-Rosen and Dora concentration camps. He was liberated on 3rd May 1945 at Neustadt in Holstein.

Following liberation, he married Bronia Szajniak from Łódź. They have a son Bernie, who is studying at McGill University.

They arrived in Montreal in 1948.

The Yablon (Jabłonkiewicz) family members were known as involved communal activists. Icek Yablon was active in founding the Hairdressers' Union in Częstochowa.

He takes part in the Society's activities.

Mendel Jabłonkiewicz (Yablon)

He was born to Berisz and Chawa (née Fiszhof) in Częstochowa where, before the War, he lived at Aleja 8.

He came to Canada in 1927 and settled in Halifax.

He is communally active and takes an interest in the activities of the Czenstochover Landsmanshaft of Montreal.

His two brothers Willie and Icek live in Montreal. Willie was one of the original founders of the Society in Montreal.

