

Rubin Rudnicki

Rubin was born to Chaim-Mojsze and Frymet (née Granek) in Częstochowa and, before the War, lived in Nowo Radomsko.

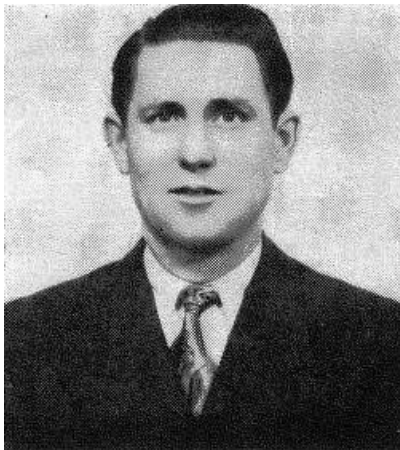

He was in Radomsko, Skarżysko and in HASAG-Warta. He was liberated in Częstochowa on the night from 16th to 17th January 1945.

After the War, he was in Cyprus and then in the State of Israel. He came to Canada, along with his wife Genia, a native of Dęblin, in 1952.

They are involved in the Society's activities. The Rudnicki couple have three charming little children.

Dawid Rudnicki

Dawid was born to Chaim-Mojsze and Frymet (née Granek) in Częstochowa where, before the War, he lived at ul. Wolińska 20.

He was in the "Big Ghetto", the "Small Ghetto" and was then barracked in HASAG. In January 1945, he was deported to Buchenwald and, from there, to a whole series of concentration camps in Germany.

He was liberated in Theresienstadt [Terezín] on 8th May 1945, and arrived in Canada along with his wife in 1948.

They are involved in the Society's activities. The Rudnickies have two charming little children.
