

Ester (née Gabel) Srebrnik

Ester is the daughter of Reb Fajwisz and Golda (née Zylberman). Before the War, she lived ul. Warszawska 13 and studied at Axer's Gimnazjum.

She was in the "Big Ghetto", the "Small Ghetto" and was then barracked in HASAG-Pelcery. She was liberated on the night from 16th to 17th January 1945 in Częstochowa.

Ester Srebrnik arrived, with her husband and son, in Montreal in 1948.

The Srebrnik couple have three fine children: a son Herszl-Fajwisz, who was born after the War in Częstochowa, and two daughters - Grace and Evelyn, who were born in Montreal.

Ester Srebrnik is active in the Society's Ladies Auxiliary and participates in all the activities.

Edward Srebrnik

Edward was born to Herszl and Chawa (née Rozen) in Częstochowa, where he lived before the War at the Aleja 8.

He was in the "Big Ghetto", the "Small Ghetto" and was then barracked in HASAG-Pelcery. He was liberated on the night from 16th to 17th January 1945 in Częstochowa.

Edward Srebrnik arrived in Montreal in 1948.

He was Minutes Secretary of the Society. He is active in the Executive and takes part in all the activities. He is also a member of the Monument Committee.

