

Lucy (née Miętkiewicz) Niskier

Lucy is the daughter of Wolf and Tosia (née Kopińska) and, before the War, lived at Il Aleja 38.

She was in the “Big Ghetto”, the “Small Ghetto” and was then barracked in HASAG-Pelcery. She was liberated on the night from 16th to 17th January 1945 in Częstochowa.

She arrived in Montreal in 1948, together with the Zilberszac family. In 1951, she married David Niskier. The Niskier couple have two fine children – a little daughter Joyce and a son William.

Lucy Niskier takes an active part in the activities of the Society’s Ladies Auxiliary.

David Nirenberg

David was born in Częstochowa, where he lived at Il Aleja 23. His parents were Abram and Ester (née Aronowicz) from Radomsko.

He was in the “Big Ghetto”, the “Small Ghetto” and then barracked in HASAG-Pelcery. He was deported to Buchenwald and, later, to various concentration camps in Germany. He was liberated in Salzhoben [?¹], Germany.

He arrived in Montreal in 1948 along with his wife Mariem (née Grynberg), the daughter of Szmul and Cywia (née Puterman) from Pabianice.

David Nirenberg and his wife Mariem take part in all the activities of the Society.
