

Madzia (née Klajner) Rozenberg

Madzia was born to Mojsze-Mordche and Rywka (née Zylberszac) in Częstochowa, where she lived at ul. Berka Joselewicza 1.

During the War, she was in the “Big Ghetto”, the “Small Ghetto” and was then barracked in HASAG. Shortly before liberation, she was deported to Ravensbrück, Germany.

She was liberated in May 1945 and lived in Munich with her brother Harry Klein and sister Mania. In Munich, she married Josef Rozenberg and they had two charming little children –

Sam and Renée. S he arrived in Canada with her husband and small children in 1948. Madzia Rozenberg is active in the Ladies Auxiliary and helps organisationally and financially.

Nuta Rozenchwajg

Nuta was born in Częstochowa. Before the War, he was living in Germany, in Frankfurt am Main. He was sent away to the Dachau [concentration] camp. I n 1939, he managed to flee Germany and, by various circuitous routes, made it to China, where he stayed until 1948.

He arrived in Montreal in 1948.

He is active in the Society's religious sector and is employed at Merkaz Torah¹.

¹ [TN: Heb., “Torah Centre”; Hebrew name of the Central Rabbinical Seminary of Montreal.]