

Mania (née Klajner) Konarski

Mania was born to Mojsze-Mordche and Rywka (née Zylberszac) in Częstochowa, where she lived at ul. Berka Joselewicza 1.

During the War, she was in the “Big Ghetto”, the “Small Ghetto” and was then barracked at HASAG-Pelcery. Prior to liberation, she was deported to Ravensbrück, Germany. She was liberated in May 1945.

For a short time, she lived in Munich with her brother Harry and sister Madzia. There, she made the acquaintance of the Częstochower landsmann Jechaskiel Konarski and, together, they travelled to his brother Kopl Konarski in Belgium, where they were married.

In 1949, they arrived in Montreal and settled down here. They have two charming little children – a daughter, Regina, and a son, Aron.

Mania Konarski is active in the Ladies Auxiliary and participates in all the activities.
