

Zofja (née Mestel) Grajcer

Zofja is the daughter of Josef and Bianka and the wife of Staszek [Stanisław] Grajcer.

During the War, she was in the “Big Ghetto”, then in the “Small Ghetto” and was barracked in the HASAG-Pelcery camp.

She was liberated on 16th January 1945 in Częstochowa, and arrived in Canada in 1952. She is active in the Ladies Auxiliary of the Czenstochover Landsmanshaft and takes part in all its undertakings.

Stanisław (Staszek) Grajcer

Staszek was born to Abram and Hela (née Dilewski) in Częstochowa, where he lived before the War on ul. Przemysłowa.

He was in the “Big Ghetto”, then in the “Small Ghetto” and was barracked in the HASAG-Pelcery camp.

He was liberated on 16th January 1945 in Częstochowa, and arrived in Canada with his wife Zofja in 1952.

He takes part in all the Society’s activities.

