

Zelig Neufeld

Zelig was born to Abram and Cyrla (née Rozenbaum) in Częstochowa, where he lived at ul. Garncarska 30.

He was in the “Big Ghetto”, the “Small Ghetto” and was then barracked in HASAG-Pelcery. In 1943, during the “Small Ghetto” period, he married Hela Rozenbaum. Both were barracked in HASAG-Pelcery, and liberated on 16th January 1945 in Częstochowa.

They arrived in Montreal in 1951 and settled down here. The Neufelds have two fine children – a son and a daughter.

Zelig Neufeld is a member of the Society’s Executive and takes part in all the activities.

Hela (née Rozenbaum) Neufeld

Hela was born to Abram and Golda in Koniecpol, near Częstochowa. Before the War, she lived [in Częstochowa] on ul. Targowa.

She was in the “Big Ghetto”, the “Small Ghetto” and then barracked in HASAG-Pelcery.

She was liberated on 16th January 1945 in Częstochowa and arrived in Canada in 1951.

Hela Neufeld is active in the Ladies Auxiliary and takes part in all the activities.

