

ORLIŃSKI (previously ARLIŃSKI), Abram (1903-), engineer, political and local government activist. He was born on 28th March 1903.

He graduated in technical studies and obtained an engineering degree. He was a Zionist activist and second vice-president of the Union of State Revisionists (Grossman revisionists) in Częstochowa. In 1933, he was a member of the headquarters of the newly founded, revisionist youth organisation Brit HaKnaim.

In May 1934, on behalf of the General Jewish Electoral Commission, he successfully stood for election to the Częstochowa City Council, representing District IV (Stare Miasto, Śródmieście, Zawady, Kamień, Kule).

Orliński survived the German occupation (outside Częstochowa). In October 1949, together with his wife, he left for Israel.

His wife was Czesława née Szpiro (→ Czesława Orlińska).
