

PINKUS Stanisław Szulim (1881-1943?), bakery controller, sports activist. He was born on 31st May 1881 in Częstochowa, the son of Dawid and Perla née Bursztyński.

From the beginning of the 20th century until 1914, Pinkus was employed by the Russian Transport Association. At the end of World War I, he worked as an official of the municipal Food Deputation (he was a bakery controller).

From 1900, he became active in sports. He was a cyclist and, later, co-founder and active in the Częstochowa Cycling Association. He co-founded the cycling section of the "Victoria" General Sports Club. Circa 1927, he was the organiser and long-time manager of the cycling section of the "Warta" Częstochowa Sports Club. At the end of the 1920's, he was manager of "Warta's" skating section. In 1930, he was awarded an honorary diploma from the Polish Union of Cycling Associations, for outstanding services in the promotion of cycling.

He lived at ul. Spadek 6. In February 1932, he moved to Warsaw. As reported in the "Latest Częstochowa News" dated 19th February 1932, "The leading clubs in our city gave [Pinkus] a festive farewell". During the German occupation, he was forced to live in the Warsaw ghetto. He probably died during the liquidation of the ghetto.

On 24th June 1910, in Częstochowa, he married Sabina Róziewicz (Ruziewicz) from Noworadomska (Radomsko), the daughter of Moszek and Fajgla née Rozenaft. Their son was Mieczysław (1914 Częstochowa-) who, in 1935, graduated from the H. Sienkiewicz I State Gimnazjum in Częstochowa. He later studied medicine.
