

To Eternal Memory!

We evoke, in the Memorial Book of Jewish Częstochowa that is no more, the names of our dear parents:

Reb Abram Abramowicz z''l, and Perl (née Rechtman) z''l;
my brothers and sisters,

Szmul, Cypora, Chana, and Majer Abramowicz z''l.

Their bitterly mourning daughter and sister, Chawa (née Abramowicz) Sztajnberger, all in Israel

For the loss of our beloved parents:

Izrael and Złata (née Rozenberg) Borkowski,
And their son Mojsze, our brother-in-law Chaim Dawidowicz, our cousins Izaak and Gittel Moszkowicz, and their children hy''d, who were murdered with inhuman cruelty by the Nazi foes in the Holocaust days.

Mourning bitterly,
the Borkowski family in Israel

To Eternal Memory!

We evoke the memory of our beloved ones, who were murdered by the cruel Germans in the days of the Jewish Holocaust:

my father Reb Szulim Bierzusi hy''d, my mother Zusza (née Habercfeld), my sister Fela, [and] my brothers Gutek, Lewek, and Motek hy''d, and the thread of their lives was severed in their prime!

Grieving bitterly for their loss, Rina Klein and her family, Haifa

To memory for all eternity

we evoke the names of our father Majer Guterman hy''d, our mother Ester (née Czestochowski) z''l (who died in 1927), our brother Zvi-Hersz (who died in 1941), and our aunts from the Czestochowski family: Chaja Cukerman, Frania Aleksandrowicz, and Jadzia Fajner, and the girls Ruth and Erna, who were murdered by the accursed foes, may their name be obliterated.

Weeping bitterly for the cruel deaths,
Chawa Kimel and Helena Guterman, in Israel

A memorial monument in the Memorial Book to the Czestochowa Jews who were annihilated, to my father Reb Nachman Herszlikowicz, who died in 1924, my brother Lajb, who died in 1925, my mother Masza (née Lewkowicz), my brother Zelig and my sister-in-law Jadzia, and their children Józef, Sara, and Nachman; my brothers Motek, Szaja, and Szlojme, [and] my sister Róża and her husband Ruben hy''d, who were all murdered by the German foes, may their name and memory be obliterated.

Frida Herszlikowicz
Tel-Aviv

Our great disaster must not be forgotten!

I reverently evoke the memory of my beloved ones, who were cruelly put to death by the accursed Nazis:
my father Hersz-Mendel (son of Reb Leizer) Wilinger, my mother Szifra (née Miedzinski), my five brothers and sisters, and my step-brother Maurice Goldszmidt hy''d, who fell in the partisan war against the Nazi invaders in Lyons (France).

I shall always preserve their sacred memory in my heart,

their son and brother,
Juda-Majer Wilinger
Haifa

To Eternal Memory!

I immortalise the memory of dear my parents, brothers, and sisters:

my father Reb Jakow Wajntraub, my mother Sara (née Gotfryd), my brothers Fiszal, Rafail, Zusman, and Menachem, and my sisters Chana and Ester,
who were murdered by the enemies, hy''d.

their son and brother, Zvi Wajntraub

An Eternal Memorial to my father Reb Szlojme Wiślicki of blessed memory, who died in 1933, and to my victims of Hitler's murderers:

my mother Ruda (née Jedlinska); the wife of my youth, Laja (née Frank), and our little daughter Chaja-Sara; my brothers Symcha and Wolf; my sister Frajdl, her husband Lipman Ajzner, and their children Rayzel, Szlojme, and Rywka.

I commemorate their names in the Memorial Book of the destroyed Jewish Community in Częstochowa.

Izaak Wiślicki, [Kiryat] Tiv'on
