

Rysiek Bida hy''d

With deep tears and great agony, we immortalise in the Memorial Book of the annihilated Częstochowa Jewish Community the hallowed memory of our dearest:

father Reb Berl Bida hy''d,
our mother Chana-Sura (née Mejlichowicz) hy''d,
brother Rysiek, and sister Estusia hy''d, who were murdered by the Nazi killers in the gruesome days of their invasion.

Sadly, we do not have the pictures of all our dearest.

May this very page serve as a symbolic headstone for them, from their sons and brothers, who bear their agony deep inside their broken hearts.

New York

Szmul Bida, Natan Bida

With great agony and deep sorrow, I immortalise in the Memorial Book of the destroyed Częstochowa Jewish Community the names of my dearest, and beloved ones:

my father Reb Dawid, and my mother Chana-Liba Ratner z''l.

Your daughter, who has remained in deep tears,

New York

Mary (Marysia) Bida (Ratner)

I immortalise, in the Memorial Book of the destroyed Częstochowa Jewish Community, the names of my dear parents:

my father Reb Jakow Szmul Fisz z''l, who was among the respected figures and public activists, as one of the founders and directors of the Craftsmen's Union in Częstochowa, and my mother Chaja-Sura (née Borzykowski) Fisz z''l.

With deep tears and agony,

New York

your son, Tadek Fisz