

We shall never forget, and we reverently evoke the names of our dear and beloved:

Reb Uziel-Zvi (Hersz) Gancwajch hy''d,
(the grandson of the renowned rabbi, Rabbi Izraif-Lajb Gancwajch z''l)
the extremely assiduous [Torah] studier, and disciple of the Prodigy of Ostrowiec *ztz''l*¹.

And following his marriage in 1893 with Rywka-Brajndla z''l, the only daughter of Reb Henech and Ester Jozewer of Częstochowa, he studied the Torah for its own sake during many years, even when he was already a great military contractor.

Hersz Gancwajch

The Nazi murderers put an end to his fine Jewish life in Częstochowa.

Blessed be his memory! And may his name, too, be immortalised in our Memorial Book.

Melbourne, Australia

the Gans-Gancwajch family

In pain and heavy sorrow, we evoke the memory of our beloved ones, who were murdered in the days of the Jewish Holocaust in Poland and Europe by the destroyers of Our People, the accursed Nazi murderers, may their name be obliterated

My daughter and our sister Frajdla-Frania Gelbard (née Diamant)
and her daughters
Mindele (Mina) and Pesele hy''d
My son and our brother
Michał, and his wife
Belcia (née Gryncajger)
hy''d

Frania Gelbard (née Diamant) hy''d

Michał and Belcia Diamant hy''d

We shall cherish their memory for all eternity!

Their mother: Malka Diamant, in Israel
Their brother: Izrael Diamant and his family, in Israel
Their sister: Carmela Kirszenberg (née Diamant), in Israel
Their sister: Chawa Wyszynski (née Diamant) and her husband, in Australia

¹ [TN: Rebbe Majer-Chil Halsztuk, 1851-1928.]