

May in the Memorial Book of the Częstochowa Jewish Community be commemorated the names of our warmly beloved parents and brother, [who were] born in Częstochowa, and died – in Buenos Aires.

Our father Gdalie Goldberg, born 1873, died 1964;
our mother Gitla Goldberg, b. 1870, d. 1951;
brother Izrael Goldberg, b.1906, d.1932.

We keep your memory with respect and love,

your sons and brothers, Jankel, Abram, and Zalman with their families,
Buenos Aires

Our beloved father, Reb Mordche Wolman z''l, who died on 21st Iyyar [19/5] 5671 (1911),

and our dear mother Fajgla, brothers Elia (Elik) and Mojsze, and sister Chaja hy''d, who perished as martyrs at the hands of the Nazi beasts, we commemorate in the Memorial Book of the destroyed Częstochowa Community.

Your son and brother,
Lajb Wolman, and his wife Regina
Buenos Aires

For Eternal Memory!

To our dear parents

Szyja and Ruchla Jakubowicz, [and] our brother Mojsze, who passed away prior to the Second World War;
our sisters and brothers

Szajndla Zajderman (with her husband and little children) Fajgla, and Kalman and Herszel, who were murdered by the Nazi killers.

We commemorate their names in the Memorial Book of the Częstochowa Jewish Community with tears and sorrow!

Your Izrael and Sara Jakubowicz,
Buenos Aires

Our dear parents,

Reb Leizer and Gitla Lancman

(a son of the renowned Częstochowa melamed, Reb Jechiel Lancman z''l);

their children Abram, Dawid, Miriam, and Sara, together with our brothers and sisters-in-law, and their little children, too, fell as victims to the Nazi murderers during the destruction of Częstochowa. Hy''d.

We reverently commemorate their names in Sefer Częstochowa.

Your children and brothers,
Jakow and Leibel
Buenos Aires – Częstochowa

My beloved parents,

Izrael and Ruchla Laskowski,

brother Abram,

sister Pesla, brother-in-law Izaak Pinczewski,
and their little children, were all martyred at the hands of the German murderers, may their name and memory be obliterated!

Your son, brother, and brother-in-law,
Dawid Laskowski
Buenos Aires

We immortalise the memory of our dear parents,

Szmul and Tauba-Mindla Majerowicz;

sister Chawa, and her husband Dawid Propinator, as well as all our relatives from the Majerowicz family, who perished as martyrs in the Second World War, at the hands of the German murderers.

Your children,
Eli, Gryna, Pinkus, and Ester
Buenos Aires

We immortalise the sacred memory of our dearest:

my father Reb Lajbisz Kifer z''l,
who had the fortune to die of natural causes;

my mother Rajzla hy''d,

[and my] brothers Hersz-Wolf and Ruben Kifer, with their wives and children,

to whose lives the Nazi murderers put an end!
We shall always carry in our broken hearts your severed lives,

Icek Kifer, wife and children
Buenos Aires

My dear parents,

Józef (Josel) and Frajda-Frymeta Rozenberg,

my beloved brothers Szama, Juda, and Majer, and my unforgettable sister Rajzla, perished tragically at the hands of the Nazi murderers.

May these few words serve as a symbolic headstone over their sacred unknown graves.

Your son and brother,
Lajzer Rozenberg
Buenos Aires
