

My sister Judes Sztuglic, and her son Jekisiel hy''d

My sisters Judes and Alte hy''d

My mother Nacha hy''d

For all these I weep; my eyes, my eyes stream unceasingly with tears!

For the loss of my father, the rabbi Reb Abram Isuchor Gotlib, Dean of the Keser Torah yeshivah of the holy Radomsker Rebbe hy''d,

My little brother Chaskel hy''d who requested he teach Torah as dean of the yeshivah, him having formerly headed the Keser Torah yeshivah in Wolbrom. My father hy''d was a distinct disciple of the Prodigy of Sochaczew tz''l, and from his youth was considered a great young prodigy, whose words of Torah were published in periodicals before the outbreak of the World War. He was popular with the religious population in Częstochowa, and delighted all his listeners with words of Torah and Chassidism. (He was born in 1894.)

[And] my mother Nacha (born in 1897), who was annihilated by the oppressive enemy, may his name and memory be obliterated, and, together with them, my sister Judes (b.1915), her husband Abram Sztuglic and their son Jekisiel (b.1941), my sister Alte (b.1920), my sister Ruchel (b.1922), my brother Chune (b.1926), and my youngest brother Chaskel (b.1933).

A Memorial For All Eternity

We [hereby] commemorate in the Memorial Book to the Jews of Częstochowa the names of our beloved:

Our father Izrael-Szyja Berliner hy''d, our mother Raszka (née Bem) hy''d, our brother Jankiel Mordka, his wife Karola [Malka] (née Herszkowicz¹), and their daughter, our sister Szoszana-Róża Wygnaski, and her husband Julek, our brother Natan, his wife Renia (née Sztrausberg), and their daughters Henie and Szulames, our brother Hillel, and his wife Ester, and all the members of our family who were murdered by the accursed Nazis.

Grieving bitterly,
Mojsze-Lajb Berliner
Basia Kromołowski (née Berliner), in Israel
