

[Caption: In memory of my parents Mojsze and Minka, who perished in the Holocaust; my sisters Mania, [and] Fela and her husband Jonatan Starko. Ezriel Jakubowicz Ben-Moshe, Tel-Aviv.]

A Commemorative Monument in the Memorial Book of the Częstochowa Jews that are no more

To my beloved parents, Reb Chaim-Józef Lewenhof z"l, who passed away in 1936, and to my mother, Mrs Bajla (née Aronowicz), who died in the Holocaust years;

and in memory of my brother Abram-Szaja, my sister-in-law Frymet (née Niemiec), and their precious daughters Mala-Miryam, Fajgla, and Mindla hy"d, who were murdered by the impure killers, who annihilated millions of our holy and pure brethren in Poland and all lands of Europe.

O earth, cover not their blood!

Immersed in grief and burning agony, Bluma Kalka (née Lewenhof), Tel-Aviv

Reb Chaim-Józef Lewenhof and his family.
 [Text in photo (f. top to b.): Chaim-Józef and Bajla Lewenhof; Abram-Szaja and Frymet Lewenhof; their daughters: Mala, Fajgla, Mindla.]