

We regard it our sacred obligation to commemorate in the Memorial Book of the destroyed Jewish Community in Częstochowa the memory of our parents:

Reb Dawid z''l, and Mrs Chana-Ester [née Waum] Judkiewicz z''l;

he was nicknamed "Der Schwarzer [The Black] Duwid," and was a great Torah studier (the son-in-law of Reb Juda-Mojsze Soifer [scribe] of Mstów). From his apartment (on Old Market number 9), the sound of the great studios and God-fearing man's Torah study always issued forth.

With the greatest reverence we mention their good deeds!

Daughter Sura Jacheta, son-in-law Abram Fiszer (shoichet) and their grandchildren
Buenos Aires

In the Memorial Book of the Częstochowa Jews, may they be immortalised my father Zvi Jakow Kopel z''l, who died on 22nd Menachem-Av 5688 [8th August 1928],

my mother Sara Rywka,
my brother Chaim-Chaskel, his wife Chawa,
[and] their children

Rachel, Rajzla, Chaja, Dawid, Jetla, and Wolf; my brother Icze, his wife Rachel,
and their little son Kopel;
my uncles, aunts, and cousins,

Icze, Sara-Rywka, and Chaim-Chaskel hy''d

and all the relatives who were annihilated by the Nazi murderers.
May this serve as a symbolic headstone – for my holy and pure ones!

In deep tears, Hillel Monowicz, Buenos Aires

Our unforgettable, beloved parents: Chaim and Basza Amsterdamer,
and their children

Ruchla, Tobiasz and Emanuel hy''d, who were murdered by the Nazi killers.

We commemorate [them] in the Memorial Book of the destroyed Częstochowa Jewish Community.
Your children and brothers,

Joel and Leizer, Buenos Aires

May for eternal remembrance be immortalised in Sefer Częstochowa the names of my dear parents:

Chaim-Mojsze Aleksandrowicz

and Laja (née Zygelman), [and] my beloved sisters

Rywka and Necha'le (from Krzepice), who perished in the horrifying days of the Second World War at the hands of the German murderers, may their name be obliterated!

Your son and brother,

Ajzyk Aleksandrowicz, Buenos Aires
