

To The Memory
of our beloved parents

Lajbel and Miriam Liberman of blessed memory,

their children,
Adolph and Rose, Ajzyk and Bluma, Masza and Majlich, Brajndla and Max
Los Angeles

We immortalise the memory of our beloved ones, who perished in the days of the Jewish Holocaust in Poland and in Europe:

our father Reb Chaim-Dawid Langfus hy''d, our mother Chawa (née Landau), our sisters Ajdla-Ester and Sara,

[and] our brothers Aryje and Aron hy''d.

Immersed in heavy grief, Rywka (née Langfus) Kaplan, Jerusalem
Majer Langfus, Bnei-Brak

To The Eternal Memory

of our beloved parents:
Reb Szmul and Rywka Nizinski, peace be upon them,

whose names are dear to all who knew them.

Their children,
Elimelech (Majlich) and Masza, Balcia and Chaim
Los Angeles

Our father Reb Grojnem Fridman was a character well-known in our city as a learned man and as one with excellent attributes. A prayer-leader, he led the Mysef service at the Radomsko shtiebel at ul. Warszawska 29.

He took care of others and earned his livelihood from his manual labour. He pursued [acts of] charity and goodwill tirelessly. Our mother Mirl, too, was noted for her good-heartedness and her deeds of charity. Also our brother Józef and his family, our brother Ruben, our sister Ruchla and all the rest of our family members hy''d were murdered - together with our beloved parents - by the accursed Nazis, may their name be obliterated.

Your children and siblings, Ester Owsiwicz (née Fridman), in Israel, Emanuel Fridman (Israel),
Juda Fridman (United States)
