For Eternal Remembrance

I evoke, in the Memorial Book of the Jewish Częstochowa which is no more, the names of my beloved family members:

my father Reb Mojsze Szymonowicz, who passed away on 3rd Elul 5702 [16/8/1942], my mother Ester (née Rozen), and my brother Binem hy''d, who were sent on Sukkos Eve to the Treblinka extermination camp

my brother Szlojme hy''d, who was sent to Radomsko, and from there to Treblinka, on 4th January 1943, my brother Józef hy''d, who was murdered together with the Ostbahn group, on Peisach 5703 (1943), my brother Izraïl-Icek (Icze), who died at Mauthausen in 1945 (a quarter of a year after the end of the horrific war), and his wife Golda (née Zomper), who was sent together with her four-year-old daughter Sara on 4/1/1943 to Radomsko, and from there to the Treblinka death camp.

They all died deaths of martyrs at the hands of the enemies and destroyers of the Jews – may God avenge their blood.

Their son and brother, immersed in great sorrow, Chaim Szymonowicz, in Israel
