

For Eternal Memory!

I evoke in the Memorial Book to the destroyed Częstochowa Community the memory of the wife of my youth,

Rachel Rozenchwajg (née Jungster, from Sosnowiec)

my daughter Sara (Lonia), her husband Szmul Bulka, and their son Aleksander (Stefan), whose photograph has been preserved; my son Majer (Marek); my sister-in-law – the wife of my brother Benjamin Rozenchwajg, her son Lolek and her daughters Lonia, Dorka, and Zosia;
my brother-in-law Chaim-Lajb Jungster, his wife Ester, and their daughters Regina and Fela hy''d.

All were murdered with inhuman cruelty by the Nazi criminals – the destroyers of the Jewry of Poland and Europe, in the Holocaust days of the Second World War.

Mojsze Rozenchwajg

In tears and in pain,

I immortalise in the Memorial Book of the destroyed Częstochowa Community

the memory of my father, Reb Izraïł-Dawid Ruszecki,

my mother Adela (née Wronowicz),

my brother Menachem,

[and] my sisters Rachel, Laja-Szoszana, and Cywia hy''d,

who were murdered by the Nazi beasts.

May this serve as a symbolic headstone on your unknown graves, from your daughter and sister, who carries her pain for your untimely death deep in her broken heart.
