

In Memory of the Szapiro (Szpiro) Family

To those who died when their day came and to those who fell in the hostilities of the accursed Nazis, during the days of the annihilation of men, women and children, [who were] unsupported and defenceless before the enemy, and they were:

The heads of the family:

the father,

Reb Jakub Eliaz, son of the rabbi Reb Szaja Szapiro, grandson of the Rebbe Reb Fiszel ztz"l of Stryków, and to his [i.e., Jakub Eliaz's] mother, Mrs Ruchla [Laia], daughter of the professor Dr Bernard, who was a "repentant sinner," and became known as the Rebbe Reb Chaim-Dawid ztz"l of Piotrków-Trybunalski (in which our grandfather Jakub Eliaz z"l was also born), and his [i.e., the professor's] wife, the righteous Mrs Hadasa (Helena) z"l,

the mother,

Mrs Erla [Julia] (of the opulent and renowned Rozenblum family), born in Radomsko, and both are buried in Częstochowa;

their first-born daughter,

Dyna, her husband Mojsze-Lajb (son of Reb Szmul) Zylberg, and their children Aron (Dolek), Józef (Józek), Dwojra, Szmul (Semek), and Chana (Hanka);

their son,

Fiszel (Feliks), his wife Hela, and their sons Jerzyk and Czesław;

Juda (Jerzyk) Brum hy"d

Hadasa-Helena (nee Szapiro)

Fiszel (Feliks) Szapiro hy"d

their daughters,

Szoszana (Róża), and her husband Roman Welgryn, Rywka (Reginka),

Hadasa (Helena), her husband Szlojme (Staszek) Brum, and their son Juda (Jerzyk),

Dr Czesława z"l, and her husband
Eng. Abram Orlinski

Dr Czesława (née Szapiro) Orlinski, who was able to emigrate to Israel with her husband, on 6th October 1949, and died in Tel-Aviv on 23rd Adar 5726 (15th March 1966).

Mourning bitterly for the loss of their beloved ones,

Their son-in-law, Eng. Abram Orlinski (Holon)
Their grandson Alexander (Alex) Orli (formerly Zylberg), his wife Dvora, and their great-granddaughter Dina (Tel-Aviv)