

Every Jewish home, library and reading room must have these recently published books by

Benjamin Orenstein:

I. Churban Czenstochow

General history of the life, struggle and destruction of Czeŝtochowa Jewry;
464 pages, illustrated with 60 pictures (in Latin characters).

Published by the Central Administration of the Czeŝtochower Landsmannschaft in the American Zone in Germany.

II. Churban Otwock, Falenica [and] Karczew

History of the life, struggle and destruction of Jewry of Otwock, Falenica and Karczew;
92 pages, illustrated with pictures and maps of the Otwock Ghetto and the Karczew camp (in Yiddish characters).

Published by the Administration of the Landsmannschaft of Otwock, Falenica and Karczew in the American Zone in Germany.

III. Wirklichkeit [Reality]

Issues of the Jewish life, struggle and destruction; 184 pages, illustrated with 12 pictures (in Yiddish characters). Published by the Literary-Historical Bureau in Bamberg.

To place orders, contact:

In Germany:

Literarisch-historisches Büro, Bamberg, Sophienstr. 12, US-Zone, Germany

Abroad:

ISIDORE SARNA, 3779 ST. URBAIN STR. MONTREAL, CANADA.

Lizenz: Published under EUCOM Civil Affairs Division Authorization
Number UNDP 240