

WOLLENBERG (WOLENBERG) Beniamin Jeremiasz (1844–1906), photographer, photographic studio owner. He was born on 29th March (or 18th May) 1844 in Częstochowa, the son of Chaim and Chana. His sister Mirla was the wife of photographer → Moritz Arbus.

He was already a photographer in 1865. Presumably, in that same year, he worked in the photographic studio of → Moritz Arbus in Częstochowa. In 1868, he left for Turek where, in 1870, he opened a photographic store.

Upon returning to Częstochowa, in 1900, he opened a photographic store at II Aleja 38, later operating at II Aleja 40).

He died on 20th November 1906 in Częstochowa and was buried in the local Jewish cemetery (grave No. 336 II).

His wife was Gołda née Gumpricht, (1849 Kalisz – 1942), the daughter of Mojżesz and Mendla. They had a son and three daughters:

- → Maurycy Mojżesz
- Maria (1888 Konin),
- Rywka (1893 Konin),
- Helena (1895 Konin).

Paszkowski, Cmentarz żydowski, vol. I, p. 255. – Zembik, Fotografia częstochowska, pp. 98, 99, 100, 127. – “Goniec Częstochowski” 1917, No. 78, p. 4.

Juliusz Sętowski, Wiesław Paszkowski